TRIBUTE OF RESPECT .- The United States District Court at Philadelphia, adjourned on the 13th, immediately after its organization, in consequence of the death of Mrs. John Tyler, the wife of the President.

DIED,

In this county, on Tuesday, the 27th inst., Mr. WILLIAM SNELL, in the 70th year of

On Wednesday morning, the 28th inst., Mrs ANN ELIZA, consort of Mr. D. F. Cooper. From the National Intelligencer, Sept. 12th. OBITUARY.

There is no part of our professional duty se painful to us as that of announcing the departure enviable repute, and whose personal virtues ren-der their deaths deeply afflictive dispensations that the said Abraham C. Dover, be notified by to a large and affectionals family, and to a wide a publication of this order, to be made in some circle of relatives and friends.

TYLER, wife of the President of the United STATES

This most estimable lady was, in life, more tru ly than we can represent her in words, a Wife, a Mother, and a Christian-loving and confiding Linn, in the State of Missouri, aforesaid: Thereto her husband-gentle and affectionate to her fore, the said Abraham C Dover, is required to children—kind and charitable to the needy and superar in this Court, on the first day of the Sext the afflicted. Deeply impressed in early life by her highly respected and pious parents with the interest of Licenses, in and forsaid County of truthful and heavenly doctrines of the meek Jesus, in all her actions, with whatever sphere in 1.5 connected, self was forgotten by her, and the good of others alone remembered, which won for her wherever she was known the love and esteem of all.

The pure spirit which animated her to such virtuous and exemplary deeds fled to the bosom of its Gon at eight o'clock on Saturday night.
